

Micheal “Mike” Bennett is a 2024 candidate for a Juris Doctorate at Howard University. Formerly an All-American and Big 10 honors football player and financial services student at The Ohio State University, Mr. Bennett earned a scholar athlete award, and was a co-captain of the 2014 National Championship Ohio State Buckeye team. He was player representative for Ohio State when the football players at Northwestern sought to unionize before the NLRB. Mr. Bennett played 5 years in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Atlanta Falcons. After retiring from the NFL and finishing his degree at Ohio State, Mr. Bennett commenced his study at Howard University School of Law. With close to two decades of experience in crypto markets and investments, Mr. Bennett concentrates his interests in the areas of business, mergers and acquisitions and other aspects of corporate law.