

Chris Burkett, chris.burkett@thepwhl.com: Chris is the Vice-President, League Operations with the PWHL. Prior to joining the PWHL, Chris represented the players of the Professional Women's Hockey Players Association through their efforts to drive change in their sport and build a new professional league. Chris was part of the bargaining team that negotiated a multi-year CBA with the ownership group of the PWHL (led by Mark Walter, co-owner of the L.A. Dodgers).

Chris is an experienced lawyer and executive, previously serving as a partner in a global law firm and as National Leader of Legal at Deloitte Canada. He has over a decade of experience representing athletes and large organizations through contentious disputes, special projects, and negotiations.

In addition to his professional experience, Chris coaches his three kids in various sports and serves his community in a variety of roles.
