

MARK L. IRVINGS

Since 1975, Mark Irvings has maintained a full-time practice devoted to alternative dispute resolution, mediating and arbitrating a wide range of cases involving FLSA and state wage and hour collective and class actions, MPPAA, individual employment agreements, wrongful termination, discrimination, partnership creation and dissolution, and miscellaneous commercial matters, as well as serving as ad hoc and permanent arbitrator under numerous collective bargaining agreements. He is a member of the National Academy of Arbitrators, the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers, and was the neutral co-chair of the ADR in Labor and Employment Law Committee of the American Bar Association. He received his B.A. from Harvard College and his J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law.