

DESIREE MURPHY

Desiree is Senior Legal Counsel for Labor and Employment for CVS Health and President of the Massachusetts Black Women Attorneys. She is a graduate of Northeastern University School of Law and Brandeis University.

Desiree started her legal career in Boston as a Labor Counsel in the Department of Labor Relations at the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority. She then joined the firm Morgan, Brown & Joy, LLP as an Associate where she defended employers from a variety of industries and jurisdictions in both labor and employment law matters. Before joining CVS she was a Senior Labor and Employee Relations Specialist at University of Massachusetts memorial Medical Center in Worcester, Massachusetts where she managed the Medical Center's union relationship and collective bargaining obligations.