

Jerry B, Sellman, Esq.

sellman@jbsadr.com

Jerry B. Sellman is a full-time arbitrator, mediator, Fact-finder and Conciliator. He is a member of the National Academy of Arbitrators. Since 1983, he has heard hundreds of cases in multiple industries nationwide in the Private, Public, and Federal Sectors through appointments from the American Arbitration Association (AAA), the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS), the Ohio State Employment Relations Board (SERB), the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), and Ad Hoc designations. He is currently on the AAA Commercial and Labor Rosters, the FMCS Roster, the National Mediation Board (NMB), FINRA, and the State of Ohio State Employment Relations Fact-finding and Conciliation Roster. Arbitrator Sellman has been a member of several permanent Arbitration Panels, which currently include the AFGE and Bureau of Prisons, NTEU and U.S. Border Protection, Postal Service, Fraternal Order of Police, Social Security Adm. Panel 12, State Employment Relations Board (Ohio), and the UMWA and American Consolidated Natural Resource, Inc., among others.

He has been an adjunct professor at Capital University Law School, where he taught in its LLM Program for several years. He has been a speaker at many domestic and international venues, including an address to the Shanghai Judicial College and the Peoples Supreme Court of Justice in Beijing, China on the enforcement of arbitral awards just prior to China's admission into the World Trade Organization.

Prior to becoming a full-time Arbitrator, Mr. Sellman argued cases before the Ohio Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit and the District of Columbia, and various Federal Agencies.

He received his BA degree, with honors, from Otterbein University and his JD Degree, cum laude, from Capital University. He studied in Basel, Switzerland for one year and completed a summer law program at the University of Exeter in England.