

Susan L. Stewart is a resident of Toronto and a graduate of Queen's University. She was called to the Bar of Ontario in 1981. Susan became a labour arbitrator in 1988 and was appointed as a Vice Chair of the Ontario Grievance Settlement Board in 1989. In 2001, she was appointed as its part-time Chair, and she served in that position until March 14, 2021. Susan's practice encompasses all sectors in both Provincial and Federal jurisdictions. She has served as President of the Ontario Labour Management Arbitrators' Association and is coordinating an initiative to diversify the arbitrator profession in Ontario. Susan is a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers and serves on the Advisory Committee of the Queen's University Centre for Law in the Contemporary Workplace. Susan was President of the National Academy of Arbitrators in 2021-2022. Before that, she served the Academy as Vice-President and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Governors. As well, Susan was Chair of the Academy's Committee on Professional Responsibility and a Director of the Academy's Research and Education Foundation. Susan is an avid traveler, runner, and cyclist. She is the founder of an arbitrator charitable fundraiser cycling group, "The Shifty Neutrals", which has raised over $100,000 for cancer research. Susan is engaged in training to become a professional fromager.