

Ms. Vireak ANN – a license Attorney at Law and a labor arbitrator, member of the Arbitration Council. More than ten years, Ms. Ann has arbitrated hundreds of collective labour disputes. She has worked closely with different organizations’ senior managers in coaching and advising them in the areas of Labor Law, human resource management, contract, conflict management, training and development. She has extensive experiences and skills, including developing and conducting training and capacity building programs on subjects ranging from Conflict Management, Leadership Development, Human Resource Management, Cambodian Labor Law, Communications and Facilitation Skills and other related topics. She was previously the Executive Director of the local NGO, Integrating Human to Quality (IHQ). Ms. Ann is a co-author of the Guidebook to Cambodia Employment and Labor Relations Laws.

Ms. Ann obtained her Master Business Administration (MBA) in Cambodia, legal research from Michigan University in Law (USA) and had undertaken mediation and negotiation skills training in Australia.