

Scott L. Evans, a shareholder at Buchalter, resides in Denver, Colorado where he has practiced commercial litigation for over 25 years. He has specific experience litigating cannabis and hemp matters, soft IP issues, real estate matters, employment contracts, and Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) disputes. Mr. Evans also has a significant white collar and in-house investigations practice. His clients have included financial advisors, commercial property owners, tech manufactures and distributors, government agencies, a national restaurant chain and a national home inspection company. He currently serves on the American Arbitration Association Commercial and Employment panels.