

ELIZABETH C. WESMAN

Elizabeth Wesman is a full-time labor arbitrator and a member of the National Academy of Arbitrators. She is listed on several labor arbitration panels, including the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, the American Arbitration Association, the National Mediation Board, the Oregon Employment Relations Board, and the Washington Public Employment Relations Commission. Dr. Wesman is also an Emeritus Professor from the Martin J. Whitman School of Management at Syracuse University, where she taught Labor Relations, Arbitration and Human Resource Strategy courses for 20 years. Ms. Wesman is past President of the NAA Research and Education Fund and past President of the National Association of Railroad Referees. She holds a Ph.D. from the New York State School of Industrial and Labor Relations at Cornell University. Her academic research and published works have been primarily in the areas of conflict resolution, employment discrimination, and arbitration of Title VII disputes. President Obama appointed her to serve on three Presidential Emergency Boards which studied commuter rail negotiations at New Jersey Transit and the Southeastern Pennsylvania Transit Authority.

She resides in Camas, Washington with her husband, Robert Lind, and her tuxedo cat, Shadow.