

BARRY WINOGRAD
Arbitrator & Mediator

Barry Winograd, a past president of the Academy, is an arbitrator and mediator of labor and employment cases, as well as other civil disputes. Before becoming an arbitrator in 1988, Mr. Winograd was an administrative law judge for the California Public Employment Relations Board and an attorney for the United Farm Workers of America. Mr. Winograd has taught on the adjunct law school faculty at the University of California, Berkeley and the University of Michigan. He also has written a number of articles on labor relations, arbitration, and mediation. Mr. Winograd received his B.A. at the University of California, Santa Barbara, and his J.D. and LL.M. from Berkeley Law. He is the proud husband of Margie Brogan, a past president of the Academy and a colleague on many professional endeavors. Their family (the "Brograds") includes five children and spouses, and eight grandchildren.
