

Susan L. Stewart – Biographical Summary

Susan is the 75th President of the National Academy of Arbitrators. Prior to her election as President, Susan held a number of positions in the Academy, including the position Chair of the Committee on Professional Responsibility and Grievances.

Susan is a graduate of Queen's University Law School. Her dispute resolution practice encompasses all sectors in both Provincial and Federal jurisdictions. Susan has served as Chair of the Labour/Management section of the Ontario Bar Association and as President of the Ontario Labour-Management Arbitrators' Association. Susan was appointed as Chair of the Ontario Crown Employees Grievance Settlement Board in 2001, where she served for 20 years. She is a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers.